

“3 N.Y.U. Scientists Accepted Bribes From China, U.S. Says”

Link to text below

http://www.nytimes.com/2013/05/21/nyregion/us-says-3-nyu-scientists-took-bribes-to-reveal-work-to-china.html?ref=science&\_r=0

Vocabulary

To check on vocabulary, try Linguee. <http://www.linguee.de/>

Define / translate the following words

A prosecutor	_____
To conspire	_____
A grant	_____
To bribe	_____
To collude	_____
To be alleged	_____

Questions

True or False; read the following statements and, based on the text decide, if they are true or false.

1. The three researchers planned to give confidential information to a Chinese funded research institute.
2. Yudong Zhu was employed by the university around 5 years ago.
3. The National Institutes of Health employed two other researchers to help Zhu in his research.
4. Li and Yang both got free trips back to China.
5. It was an accident that representatives from a Chinese government entity along with a direct competitor of the university got information about the research.
6. The F.B.I discovered the conspiracy and told the University about what it had found.
7. Mr. Li will have problems if he wants to return to the U.S.