

“A Growing Challenge for Germans Who Live by Bread Alone”

Link to text below

<http://www.nytimes.com/2014/06/04/world/europe/a-rising-challenge-for-germans-who-live-by-bread-alone.html?module=Search&mabReward=relbias%3As&r=0>

Vocabulary

Match the vocabulary on the left with their meanings on the right.

The courtyard	A small loaf of bread for one person
A roll	Feel or know something bad may happen to you
The wrist	To be publicly thanked or acknowledged
To attract	Part of your body, between your arm and hand
To be tempted	An open area, surrounded by walls or buildings
The awareness	To want to do or have something
To be threatened	To know something about something
The recognition	To bring someone closer to you or to something

Questions

True or False; read the following statements and, based on the text decide if they are true or false.

1. Fritz Trefzger's bakery is very busy on Sunday mornings.
2. The main reason Trefzger opened his kitchen to the public was to get more customers.
3. Industrial production methods of baked goods have meant that bread is now much cheaper for the consumer.
4. UNESCO has listed German baking on the list of cultural heritages for the first time.
5. Trefzger does not want his children to become bakers – the hours are too hard.
6. Brenneis believes that discount supermarket bakeries smell good, but the product is not as good as a traditional bread.
7. Young bakers are coming up with fresh, new ideas to make bakeries more interesting and appealing and using the web to publicise their ideas.